WORDS OF WISDOM.

(Senator Vance.)

The great bulk of the Alliance men are Democrats and they should not be wounded by any hard words.

MECKLENBURG POLITICS.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 23, 1890.-- The campaign in Mecklenburg county is now open, and the prospect for Democratic success was never better.

The Republicans in this county are fighting under the prohibition banner.
They have made no nominations for the Legislature or county offices. The prohibitionists have nominated a legislative ticket, and one of the nominees is ex-Sheriff Cooper, once an independent Democrat, but now a recognized Republican. He is open in his opposition to Vance, and hopes to capture the anti-Vance Democrats. It is understood that the Republicans will vote for the prohibition nominees, especially Cooper. In fact, the so-called prohibition ticket is nothing but republicanism in disguise. The best friends of prohibition in the county will have nothing to do with this third party--Republican movement.

The Democratic nominees are all Ali-ance men and are among our best citizens. Capt. Ardrey, candidate for the Senate, is one of our best farmers--a man of superior intelligence, a fluent and forcible speaker and a man of the highest character. Our candidates for the House are J. W. Hood, D. W. Mayes and R. A. Grier. Hood has been in the Legislature before and has the full confidence of our people as wide awake, intelligent legislator. His head is full of horse sense. R. A. Grier is the President of our county Alliance. He is a very bright man and very popular with all classes. Mr. Mayes is a very quiet, modest man, and highly esteemed for his pure character and sterling democracy. There has been some slight manifestations of dissatisfaction with the ticket. But of course it is impossible to please everybody, and it is the cardinal principle of Democracy to submit to the will of the majority.
However, everything is now harmonized, and we are united in the effort to perpetuate white supremacy in North Carolina. As Alliance men, we feel that the only hope of inaugurating our reforms is through the Democratic party. Many Alliance men are on the Democratic ticket in the State, and we have better hopes than ever before of having representatives in our legislative bodies who are in sympathy with the farmers and laboring class. We don't propose to throw away this opportunity. We will rally to the Democratic party as we never have before. If we Alliance men do not rally to the Democratic party our hope for reform will be lost. If Democracy goes under the Alliance and its principles also perish with it. Mecklenburg will bear her record, and don't you forget it.

Morrisville in Line With a Growing Club.

(Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 23.--The Democrats of Hilliard's School-house district, White Oak township, Wake county, met on Monday night, September 22d, and organized a Young Men's Democratic club, by electing A. C. Council, president; M. Barbee, vice-president; L. D.
Bancum, secretary; W. Hilliard, treasurer, and H. W. Marcom, A. Heron-and A. M. Council the executive committee. We only had one day's notice, yet we enrolled twenty-three the first night. We expect many others at our next meeting. Mr. W. B. Upchurch, one of our nominees for the Legislature, was present, and addressed the club on the importance of the members going to work. Great enthusiasm prevailed, and you may expect a good report from our precinct on election day.

L. D. Bancum, Secretary.

VANCE ENDORSED.

Freeman and Davis Nominated For the Senate in the Seventh District.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

NASHVILLE, N. C., Sept. 25.--The Democrats of the Seventh Senatorial district met at Nashville Tuesday last, and nominated Dr. H. F. Freeman, of Wilson, and Plumer A. Davis, of Franklin, for the Senate.

Amid much enthusiasm the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, we recognize the incalculable amount of good work that Senator Vance has done and is doing to relieve the people of the South from the oppressive burdens heaped upon them by unscrupulous partizan Republican legislation, and

WHEREAS, Senator Vance has for the past thirty six years been a servant of the people of North Carolina, and has always been true to their interest, and we believe him to be in hearty sympathy with any measure that he consistently believes will result in good to the people that he has served so faithfully and loves so well, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the nominees of this Convention are hereby instructed, should they be elected to the Senate of North Carolina, to vote for and do whatever lies in their power, both in the Democratic caucus and in the Legislature, to secure the reelection of Zebulon B. Vance to the United States Senate.

The people of Nash have made good crops this year and are happy. The tobacco crop is very fine and considerable money will be realized on it.

WINSTON-SALEM NEWS.

(Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 23, 1890.--Last night a large crowd of Democrats from different parts of the county, and many from this city, met in the court house and held a rousing meeting. Several eloquent speeches were made and a Democratic club was organized with a large membership. Hon. R. B. Glenn was chosen president, and George R.
Quincey, C. S. Linnier and H. A. Gust vice president. J. O. Foy secretary and T. W. Parrish as treasurer. Delegates to the State convention at Raleigh were ordered to be chosen by the president, to be announced later. Much enthusiasm was exhibited and a big move for the Democracy of Forsyth was made.

There was some cruel fun had by some scoundrel in Winston last Sunday night. Sunday morning early it was rumored on our streets that Rev. H. A.
Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church had dreamed three nights in succession that Winston would be destroyed in some way at 10 o'clock after the night of the 21st of September. In addition to this it was stated that Mr. Brown had received a letter from the man who dreamed that Johnstown, Pa., would be destroyed, stating that he (the Johnstown man) had also dreamed similar to Mr. Brown, and that Winston would be destroyed either by fire or earthquake. Another rumor had it that a farmer about five miles from here, was in his field cutting tobacco Saturday afternoon when a stranger came out of the woods and told him that the city would burn up Sunday night and then vanished. All this was strange and the last bore the untruth on its very face, but still the children and superstitious grown people grew uneasy. It was announced on the streets that Pastor Brown would preach on the subject on Sunday night, and the great crowd which flocked to hear him was surprised that he did not mention it. It was an amusing sight to behold many people after church going down into Salem on the street cars as if it were a city of refuge.
Some people did not even go to bed, and it comes from a good source that one of our foremost druggists closed his doors early and pulled for the country. Children wept, and some negroes held a prayer meeting, but Winston stands yet and no mistake. The respectable, intelligent class of colored people did not believe it and it should not be told of them.
"But all the same it was mighty funny to see the negroes on the look out."

Last week was another busy one with our tobacco manufacturers and leaf dealers. There were 241,043 pounds of plug shipped away from here during the week and this week's shipments will probably surpass that. Winston is a hustling and no mistake.

It is learned here that the old and estimated father of the Rev. E. L. Stanley, of Greensboro, and the late lamented Rev. P. F. W. Stanley of the Trinity College District is very low at his home near Ararat on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad. Rev. E. L. Stanley has been called to his bedside.

Now since the last game for the championship of the South on the diamond has been played and Winston has come out victorious and with colors flying the baseball fever will subside anyhow for the season. It would be well to state just here that the last game on the part of Winston was a perfect one and could not have been better. Although North Carolina takes little pride in athletics as a whole yet this cannot be said of two little places in the Piedmont section. Last fall the Trinity foot-ball team won the championship of the State on kicking the leather sphere and could have given any team in the South a hard tussle, and this summer Winston's Blues have won the Southern pennant on the diamond. Athletics should be encouraged. We need it among our young people. Let there be an Inter-Collegiate Foot-ball League in the winter and a Southern or State Baseball League in the summer.

Since writing the CHRONICLE yesterday, it has been ascertained that Rev.
Henry C. Fulton, the newly nominated Democratic candidate for the Senate from Forsyth and Stokes is a Zeb Vance Alliance man. He has told several friends, I understand that he will support him against all others.

M. VICTOR.

Every Democratic voter ought to have his name on the registration books without delay.

DISSOLUTION OF CO-
PARTNERSHIP.

I hereby announce that I have this day sold my interest in the business of the late firm of Hardin & Pescud, to Messrs. Thomas Pescud and T. L. Eberhardt, who will continue the business under the name and style of Eberhardt & Pescud. All claims against Hardin & Pescud will be paid by Eberhardt & Pes-cud, who will also collect all accounts due said former firm.

In taking leave of my old friends and customers, I beg to express to them my grateful appreciation of the steady and generous support they have given me for the past thirteen years. I trust they will be equally kind to my successors, whom I cordially recommend to all my friends as eminently worthy of confidence and support.

SEPTEMBER 1, 1890.

Referring to the above notice, we respectfully announce that we have this day formed a partnership for the transaction of a general grocery and provision business as the successors of Messrs. Hardin & Pescud.

With increased facilities for doing business, and an experience (as to one of the partners) of twelve years in this branch of trade, we hope to merit a continuance of the generous patronage extended to the late firm; and to increase it, if an increased stock, low prices and close attention to the wants of our customers will accomplish that result.
